

COURSE INFO

Award in Education & Training (AET)

Level	Mode of Study	Location
3	Evening	Nuneaton Campus

Introduction

This course is designed as an introduction to teaching for all new teachers, trainers, and tutors in the Lifelong Learning sector (learners over 14 years of age). You do not need to be working in a teaching role to complete this course.

NOTE - this course is not appropriate for those wanting to teach in primary or secondary schools. More guidance for teaching in the compulsory education sector is available on www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching

Study Outline

Areas you will study include:

- The inclusive learning environment
- Investigating professional responsibilities
- Inclusive learning and teaching
- Planning for inclusive learning
- Principles of assessment
- Micro teaching to peers

Entry Requirements

Candidates will be invited to attend an initial assessment and interview session prior to enrolment. Be appropriately qualified to at least level 3 in their teaching specialism or have vocational competence at level 3 (vocational reference required) and hold at least a level 1 qualification, or equivalent, in English and Maths.

Equipment

General stationery, files.

Assessment

A combination of assignments and an observed micro-teach.

Progression

Students who have the appropriate teaching may progress to the Certificate or Diploma in Education.

Important details

North Warwickshire & Hinckley College has taken care to ensure the information on the website is as accurate as possible at the time of publication. It is intended as a general guide to its courses and facilities and forms no part of a contract. The College accepts no liability and reserves the right to make changes to course information or withdraw without notice any of the programmes or facilities described. It is advisable to check your chosen course information prior to enrolment.

