North Warwickshire & South Leicestershire College is committed to its statutory duties as set out in the Equality Act 2010 and the principle of equal opportunities and equal treatment for all employees. As part of that principle, the College believes that all staff should receive equal pay for the same, or broadly similar work rated as equivalent, or for work of equal value, regardless of their sex or any other characteristic. As such, the College ensures that it:

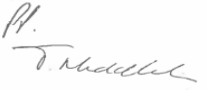

- Reviews its equal pay policy in line with the Equality and Human Rights guide to equal pay.
- Monitors the impact of practices, not only with regard to pay, but also recruitment and performance reviews.
- Has a transparent pay system.
- Provides training for managers on anti-discriminatory practice.
- HR oversight of recruitment, career progression and pay processes to ensure there is no gender bias.

North Warwickshire & South Leicestershire College knows that there is more to do and over the next 12 months will be taking further steps to demonstrate its ongoing commitment by:

- Undertaking a review of the job evaluation process and its application across the College.
- Investigate opportunities for more affordable and flexible childcare options within the College Nurseries provision.

- Review and promote family friendly policies across the College, including flexible working, maternity, paternity and parental leave.

I confirm the data in this report is accurate and has been carried out in line with regulations.
